a children's creative dance company

Company Rules

A journey together to explore the individual uniqueness & creative potential of each dancer.

Dancers must be attending at least one Ballet class & one Modern/Creative class per week and be 8 to 12 years of age.

Company members are expected to be punctual & prepared for class/ rehearsal.

Company members must attend 75% of their required classes each month. Anyone not meeting this requirement for 2 months in a row may be dismissed from the Company.

Excessive absence from Company class/ rehearsal may result in not being allowed to perform.

Respectful conduct is expected from all members. This includes participating in all activities & willing to try new things.

Work on Company projects outside of Company class/rehearsal will be necessary.

Dancers must keep a 3-ring binder/journal for Company projects & bring to class/rehearsal.

Yearly Company dues will be $60.00 payable to AYBT. (This helps to cover some of the expense of costumes & props.)
